

HUMAN EVOLUTION

Vol. 21 - n. 1 - 4 - 2006

Tobias P.V. - Twenty questions about Human Evolution	3-64
Goldschmidt W. - Affect Hunger and the Evolution of Human Behavior	65-81
Chiarelli B. - Anthropology as Natural History of Mankind	83-99
Romano M. - Hominid Dual Type of Gait and its Ecosystem Implications	101-139
Romano M. - Do we really need of approaching Darwinism to the Religion?	141-153
Mazza P. - Understanding elephant dwarfism on Sicily (Italy) and Flores (Indonesia): still a long way to go	155-161
Filippi O. - An outline of Archaic Paleolithic: characters, chronology and diffusion of early human technology	163-185
Pramankij S. - Lithic-cultural Activities in Prehistory of Southeast Asia, Particularly Thailand	187-192
Chiarelli B. - The Biological and Evolutionist Bases of Ethic	193-203
Yamada T. - Religion and Nature in Human Societies Today	207-210
Yamada T. - Nature as the Quintessence of Sakha Shamanism Revived	211-223
Tchervonnaia S. - The Traditional Paganism and the Modern Neo-Paganism in the Consciousness, Culture and Politics of the Russian's Finn-Ugric Peoples	225-231
Irimoto T. - Ritual and Discourses on Nature among the Changing Post-Soviet Reindeer Herders in Northern Kamchatka	233-241
Rafea A.R. - Nature and Man: Past and Present in Egypt	243-257
Short Notes Section The extinction of Neanderthals: a possible hypothesis The Paleolithic origin of the geometry and the Neolithic origin of arithmetic: its pedagogic implication.	259-262
Wierciński M. - Soltysiak A. - Andrzej Kazimierz Wierciński (1930–2003) In memoriam	263-265
